

around town

A son, Christopher Ryan, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Petrie of Ridge Top Road at South Shore Hospital Feb. 7. Christopher joins his brother, Maxwell, 20 months old. Grandparents are the Joseph Coughlins of Hingham and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Petrie of Vero Beach, Fla.

Two Cohasset residents, Sally Ferreira and Vernon Tibbetts, were recently married and are living in Albuquerque, N.M. Vernon has transferred his business to Albuquerque and he and Sally are having a subscription to the Mariner sent there so they will be informed about town news. Their many friends wish them success in their new home.

Cohasset students who graduated from Boston University in January are: School of Education — Mary Kennedy; Graduate School — Susanne Churchill; Metropolitan College — Marguerite Hill; and the College of Liberal Arts — Carol Hurtig.

Scott McCoy, coached by Ginger Gray of Cohasset Winter Gardens, won his third gold medal in the eight and under age group in figure skating competition. His next meet is in Lynn. He also won a silver medal in the Ice Skating Institute of America competition.

Congratulations to the Skipper's basketball team! For the second time in their 32-year history they have qualified for the state tournament, after their 90-63 South Shore League victory Friday night.

Thomas J. Watson, headmaster of Derby Academy, has announced the honors lists for Cohasset students: Susan Bryant, Amory Burnham, Susan Crocker, Heather Hawker, William Langmaid, Paul Luardi Jr. and James Patterson.

The Third World, an organization which sponsors social activities for and by the Cohasset METCO program for 48 students, will host a fashion show on March 2 at the high school auditorium. Members planning the event are Thelma Burns, Cheryl Wilmoth, Carla Latson, Jerome Turner and Tracey Young.

David Hurlbut

John L. Cornet of Nichols Road has been appointed vice-president of investments in the fixed income department of the Massachusetts Financial Services Co. of Boston.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Donovan were among the First Nighters at the play Strangers, based on the Sinclair Lewis-Dorothy Thompson marriage, and starring Bruce Dern and Lois Nettleton.

Members of the Riding Club attended a lecture on preventive medicine and the horse at the Community Center, given by Dr. Bruce Chase, who is affiliated with the New England Horse Care Center in Rhode Island. Persons interested in joining the Club may obtain applications at the Wee Spinnaker or the library.

Martha Gaffey is a member of the cast of the Curtain Call Theatre play, Angel Street which will be presented Saturday and Sunday at Central High School in Braintree.

David G. Hurlbut and F. Allen Weisenfluh of Cohasset were elected vice president, special services, and second vice president, bond, respectively, at the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co., effective Jan. 8.

A resident of 20 Forest Notch, Hurlbut joined the John Hancock in 1961 as an actuarial associate and served in various actuarial capacities prior to his election as second vice president in 1972.

A graduate of Dartmouth College, Hurlbut is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries, a charter member of the American Academy of Actuaries and a member of the Boston Actuaries Club.

Hurlbut and his wife, Shirley, have three sons.

Weisenfluh, a resident of Summer St., joined the company's bond department in 1971 as senior investment officer and head bond trader. He is vice president of John Hancock Advisers Inc., a subsidiary, and portfolio manager of the John Hancock Tax-Exempt Income Trust.

Allen Weisenfluh

A graduate of Pennsylvania State University, Weisenfluh is a trustee of the Cohasset Savings Bank, serves on the Cohasset Board of Assessors and is president of trustees of the Sandy Beach Association. He is a member of the Boston Society of Security Analysts, the Municipal Bond Club of Boston and the Boston Long Table Syndicate.

Weisenfluh and his wife, Barbara, have a daughter and two sons.

Cohasset Firefighter Richard Conley will teach the Heart Savers course on Sunday March 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the Cushing Room of the Rockland Savings Bank. It is sponsored by the Newcomers Club. CPR instruction will also be offered.

The South Shore Amateur Athletic Foundation has introduced the Pirate Ice Hockey team, which is preparing for its international competition season in Moscow and Helsinki next month. Frank Mahoney of Cohasset is a member of the team.

Mary-Jo Barron was featured speaker in the fourth in a series of Stage Door lectures organized by the Council of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Hot beef stew, rolls, salad and apple pie were served to the luncheon guests, who included Mrs. Louis Eaton Jr. of Beach Street.

9.342%

At this rate everyone will want a
Money Market Certificate.

This rate is effective through February 21, 1979.

It's a good time to ask about our 6-month
Money Market Certificates.

It's a good time to ask about our other Savings Plans, too.

Minimum deposit $10,000.

The rate shown is an annual rate; however, the maturity of the Certificate is 26 weeks, and the rate is subject to change at renewal. This offer may be withdrawn at any time without prior notice.

If funds are withdrawn before maturity, Federal regulations require that the interest rate be lowered to the then current passbook rate and that 90 days' interest at that rate be forfeited.

South Shore
Bank

Member F.D.I.C.

Planning
home improvements?

Visit the many departments of the
Welch Company....see how we can help!

EVERYTHING

you'll need from paint and brushes to lumber
and hardware.